ARMS CONSIGNMENT FOR GOVT. FORCES

EXPECTED AT MALAGA FROM MEXICO

REBEL CLAIMS DISCREDITED

London, To-day.

The Spanish war news yesterday largely consisted of insurgent claims, including a claim to the capture of the hill-town of Ronda, the bulwark of the Malaga region, but well-informed circles in La Linea discredit the claim, while recent visitors to Malaga express the opinion that the city is not likely to be captured speedily. They state that the position of the Government forces has been difficult owing to a shortage of ammunition and petrol, but a large consignment of arms and ammunition from Mexico is expected to arrive at Malaga by sea to-day. — Reuter.

Gibraltar: Admiral Sir Alfred Pound, commander of the British Mediterranean Fleet, was to have arrived in Malaga yesterday in the flagship Queen Elizabeth. He is returning to Gibraltar to-day.

CONDITIONS IN SOVIET

Ex-Tsarist General Makes Close Study

AMAZING REVELATIONS

"CHINA MAIL" SPECIAL

Paris, To-day.

The tense uneasiness with which the French people watch the events in Spain and the labour activities at home — both being movements due to the subversive activities of Bolshevism — heightens the effect of the serious article published in Le Jour by the former Tsarist General, Rickoff.

General Rickoff relates that he has been in Russia disguised as a peasant, and has closely studied the situation. He lived near the political concentration camp at Chabarowsk, where thousands suspected of political intrigue were condemned to live in indescribable misery. One day, for instance, a Soviet Military Commission, composed mostly of scientists, who wanted to try the effects of a new poison-gas, arrived at the camp and conducted experiments on the prisoners, more than 300 suffering agonies of violent poisoning. As a result many of them died, the rest carrying their injuries for life.

General Rickoff, who, as a military expert, is qualified to judge the significance of the conditions he describes, declares that the whole nation of 180,000,000 has at present but one aim, namely, preparation for the coming conflict, the idea of war dominating its whole life.

ROYAL HOUSE OF HOLLAND

Enthusiastic Public Greeting

Amsterdam, To-day.

H. M. Queen, Wilhelmina, accompanied by the Princess Juliana and her fiancé, Prince Bernhard of Lippe zur Biesterfeld, paid a visit to Amsterdam yesterday. They drove through the streets to the Olympic Stadium, where an official reception was held in their honour. The Queen and her party were received with great enthusiasm and the streets were crowded with cheering inhabitants as Her Majesty drove past. — Reuter's Bulletin Service.

SPANISH FLEET MUTINY

Insurgent Broadcast Report

Paris, To-day.

A mutiny is reported of the Government fleet assembled at Malaga, according to an insurgent broadcast from the Tenerife radio station, which states that the warships met at sea to consider the situation and decided that they had been deceived by the Madrid Government. Some of the crews decided not to continue fighting, but to surrender unconditionally. Others refused to agree to this, whereupon shooting broke out, resulting in 250 deaths. — Reuter.

TEXTILE STRIKE SETTLED

WAGES AGREEMENT IN FRANCE

GOVERNMENT TRIUMPH

Paris, To-day.

The settlement of the Lille textile strike is now in sight, and it was expected that an agreement between the employers and employees would be signed last evening. It is understood that the workers made considerable concessions on the question of the appointment of workers' delegates in the factories, which was one of the difficulties in the way of a settlement.

The employers are understood to have compromised on the wages increase, which will be fixed on a scale to be applicable to all other textile towns.

FRANCE DESIRES PEACE

Broadcast Address By Premier

DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES DEFENDED

Paris, To-day.

France unanimously desires peace and would be unanimous tomorrow if it was a question of preserving the security of the motherland, declared the Premier, M. Leon Blum, in a broadcast speech yesterday.

France wants to coerce nobody, but will not allow herself to be coerced directly or indirectly by anyone. It is in this sense that she intends to approach the grave international discussions which are about to open.

France wishes to live in peace with all nations, whatever their regime. She is endeavouring, vis-à-vis all nations, to reduce the causes of conflict, from which one day might come war. — Reuter.

NOBEL PEACE PRIZE

Hitler's Candidature Stressed

"CHINA MAIL" SPECIAL

Berlin, To-day.

Great prominence is given in the Berlin press to an article in the well-known Brazilian paper O Imparcial, which supports the proposal made by a Finnish paper that the next Nobel Peace Prize should be awarded to Chancellor Hitler. O Imparcial writes:

"After a careful analysis of European problems, one must come to the conclusion that Herr Hitler thoroughly deserves the Peace Prize. In contrast to the disruptive Bolshevik activities, Herr Hitler, through the Anglo-German naval agreement, the reconciliation with Austria and the understanding with Italy, has defended peace. Herr Hitler's policy is so skilful that it has been able to prevent the Spanish revolution from spreading into a Bolshevik war that in present circumstances would mean suicide for Europe, and without Herr Hitler's sincere efforts in the cause of peace, this war would already have broken out." — Trans-Ocean Service.

DEFENCE OF JERUSALEM'S WATER-SUPPLY

Naval Pom-pom Guns Used By British Forces

Jerusalem, To-day.

Naval pom-pom guns were used yesterday by the British forces in dispersing Arabs in the neighbourhood of King Solomon's Pools, which are now part of Jerusalem's modern water-supply. The Arabs fled, and there were no British losses. — Reuter's Bulletin Service.

FILM PRODUCER ARRIVES

Josef von Sternberg In Colony

LEISURELY WORLD TOUR

Mr. Josef von Sternberg, the Hollywood film producer, whose picture, "The King Steps Out" will be shown at the King's Theatre on Thursday next, arrived in the Colony from Shanghai by the s.s. Chichibu Maru this morning and will, according to present plans, remain here until Tuesday, when he sails for Saigon by the s.s. Chenonceaux.

Interviewed by the China Mail at the Hong Kong Hotel this morning, he stated that he was taking a leisurely tour round the world. He has found it very stimulating indeed, and feels that by the time he returns to America, he will have gathered enough material for another picture.

Mr. von Sternberg said that it seems to be the general idea that whenever a film producer goes on a tour, he carries with him about 120 cameras and a whole retinue of servants. That was not the case with him. He is travelling alone and his only "paraphernalia" were his pair of eyes!

He said that he had not seen any Chinese-produced pictures yet but was hoping to do so soon. So far as the future was concerned, Mr. von Sternberg said he had made no particular plans. Everything would depend on the length of his tour and how things stood when he returned to Hollywood, he concluded.

KWANGSI LEADERS IN CANTON

GIVEN CORDIAL WELCOME BY NANKING OFFICIALS

LOYALTY TO CENTRAL REGIME PLEDGED IN MANIFESTO

[From A Special Correspondent]

Canton, To-day.

The Nanking-Kwangsi dispute has been completely settled, and General Li Chung-jen, Pacification Commissioner of Kwangsi, and Mr. Huang Ko-chai, Chairman of the Kwangsi Provincial Government, arrived at Canton by air at 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The two Kwangsi leaders were cordially welcomed at the Tin-ho Aerodrome by General Yu Hon-mow, Pacification Commissioner of Kwangtung, General Huang Mo-chung, Chairman of the Kwangtung Provincial Government, General Chien Tai-kwan, A.D.C. to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, and a large number of members of the party and military and political officials. They then proceeded to attend the welcoming dinner party of General Yu Hon-mow and Mr. Huang Mo-chung and after dinner they went to the Whampoa field headquarters to see the Generalissimo at 9.30 p.m.

It will be recalled that this is the first time that General Li Chung-jen and the Generalissimo have met since General Li went back to Kwangsi in 1918, and these soldiers from now on will co-operate in their services on behalf of China. It is learned that the two Kwangsi leaders will stay in Canton for two or three days to discuss necessary and important questions with the Generalissimo, and they will then return to Kwangsi.

REGARDED AS OF NATIONAL IMPORTANCE

GOOD RESOLUTIONS DESTROYED

Pakhoi Incident Reviewed

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS DEPEND ON CANTON AUTHORITIES

An interesting interview concerning the events leading up to the Pakhoi incident of September 8, when a Japanese resident, Mr. Junzo Nakano, was alleged to have been shot by the local authorities, was given to members of the Press this morning on board the m.v. Chichibu Maru by Mr. T. Nakamura, Consul for Japan at Canton, who has just returned from a short holiday trip to Japan.

Referring to the movements of four Japanese warships which were recently in the neighbourhood of Pakhoi, Mr. Nakamura stated that as far as he knew they were now at Hoihow, main port of Hainan island. These vessels were not sent direct from Japan, but were despatched from various ports.

Questioned about the future developments of the Pakhoi "incident," Mr. Nakamura said that they all depended upon the future attitude adopted by the Canton Government authorities. When told that the 19th Route Army had withdrawn from Pakhoi in order to allow the Japanese Commission to proceed to investigate the incident, Mr. Nakamura said he was very pleased at this turn of events, stating: "It ought to have been so. I am very pleased."

NATIONAL IMPORTANCE

Regarding the incident itself, Mr. Nakamura stated: "The Japanese Government do not regard this incident of Pakhoi as a local one, but one of national importance. We take this inference because of the anti-Japanese feeling which is prevailing all over China at the moment. The Japanese Government intend taking up the matter immediately with the Central Government at Nanking. In Japan there are a large majority of people who are very anxious to restore the original good relations between Japan and China, but this series of incidents, beginning with Cheangtu [a Japanese resident was murdered by a Chinese mob] and culminating with Pakhoi, have severely disappointed this majority. However, there are still hopes that some mutual understanding will come about if the National Government takes immediate steps to suppress the anti-Japanese feeling."

FLEET MOVEMENTS

Five Chinese gunboats, the Chu Chieu, Chu Tai, Chu Kuan, Chu Yu and Kiang Chen, arrived in port yesterday from the South, and will probably go north soon. The Yung Chi and Yung Chien left this morning for an unknown destination.

The U.S.S. Sacramento is due in port from the north to-day.

MR. NAKAMURA'S MISSION
"I came to Canton from Japan to try and consolidate the friendship between the Canton authorities, or Southern China, with the Japanese Government, but had no sooner arrived than this series of 'incidents' occurred, wrecking all my hopes."

"The Japanese Government cannot understand why the Central Government, or for that matter the Canton authorities, could not force the 19th Route Army to withdraw from Pakhoi in order to allow the Japanese Commission to make their investigations, which we feel they were entitled to do, in view of the fact that the life of Mr. Nakano and his three children were in danger. However, the successful efforts of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and the resultant withdrawal of the 19th Route Army from Pakhoi is a matter for congratulation."

Mr. Nakamura, who is accompanied by his secretary, leaves for Canton to-day by the noon express.

OLYMPIC SWIMMING STARS MAY BE SEEN IN COLONY AFTER ALL

RECREIO EXTENDED BY KOWLOON DOCK

REMEDIOS RECOVERS IN FINE STYLE

WARD UPSETS RECREIO JUNIORS

(By "SKIP")
THE most exciting match last Saturday was, as I anticipated, that between the Recreio (without Dick Alves and Ribeiro) and Kowloon Dock, which was played at Hung Hom. It was touch and go most of the time until about the 18th end, when the Portuguese were only two shots to the good! With both of the Silvass getting a four and A. A. Remedios six shots in the last three heads, however, the visitors' win looked more comfortable than it really was.

Fraser and C. G. Silva, similar in style and methods, had a very close duel, with the former not having much luck, at one head in particular when Dame Fortune frowned on him severely. With the best of the position behind and the opposition lying a brace, he drove but missed by the proverbial coat of varnish. Trying the same shot again he hit the jack "good and hard" only to see it rebound off a wood to give the winners a count of four.

ATHLETIC LOSE MAJORITY OF THEIR TEAM

But Kowloon Chinese Benefit

MAK SHIU-HON STILL UNDECIDED

(By "REFEREE")

The latest entry into the First Division of the Hong Kong Football League are the Kowloon Chinese, whose appeal for admission to the First Division of the League was upheld by the Emergency Committee of the H.K.F.A. nearly a fortnight ago.

This is another case of players from one Club deserting to another and the majority of players will be recognised as former Athletic stars, while the latter will probably be left with the alternative of either recruiting players from outside the Colony or withdrawing from the League!

ARGONAUTS TO HAVE RESERVE HOCKEY TEAM

SENIOR ELEVEN STRENGTHENED

GOOD INTERMEDIATE AND ATTACKING LINES

(By "STICKS")

The Argonauts Hockey Club are looking forward to a more successful season this year than last, when they finished third in the First Division of the Marnak Hockey Tournament, as they have, in spite of two losses in A. A. Silva and A. A. dos Remedios, been strengthened by the inclusion of several new players.

U. B. Souza, the local, Portuguese international goalkeeper, will be playing for them this season and his inclusion will greatly strengthen the team in this department.

E. Gosano and J. Goncalves will probably be the two backs. Goncalves played throughout last season at right-half, but, owing to the departure of A. A. dos Remedios for Saigon, he will be forced to play at full-back. E. L. Gosano did not play for them till the latter part of the season, but

A. A. da Roza, above, has not entered for any of the individual championship events this season, but took part in the 200 Yards Open Relay for the V.R.C. as their third string swimmer.

FOUR ENCOUNTERS TO-MORROW

Kowloon Dock Visit Champions

(By "SKIP")

To-morrow's curtailed fixture list does not promise to be very exciting, the only match to which much interest will attach is that between the Civil Servants and the Yacht Club at the Valley and that solely by reason of the fact that a change in League positions may result. If the home team win, as they should do, it will leave their opponents at the bottom of the League.

In the First Division Taikoo will entertain Craigengower "B" and I think they will just about manage to pull it off. Kowloon Dock have to visit the champions, and will no doubt endeavour to emulate their feat of last year by winning at the Valley. But I do not fancy their chances this time. I hear rumours of other matches being arranged, but am unable at present to confirm this.

WILLIAMS OUT OF INTERPORT

Injury To Hand In Trial

CANDIDATES AT PRACTICE

(By "L.B.W.")

Followers of cricket will regret to learn that an injury sustained in last Saturday's Interport trial has put Lieut. J. P. Williams out of the game for some time and he will therefore not be available for the Interport against Shanghai next month.

I saw Williams at the Hong Kong Cricket Club yesterday with his left hand in a plaster of Paris cast and on enquiry I was told that he was hit by a ball from Lieut. Garthwaite during the trial game last Saturday and had a bone splintered. Williams said that the cast will not be removed for another month so that any likelihood of him being chosen for the Interport is now out of the question. It is to be regretted that the unfortunate accident has robbed Williams of what appeared, after Saturday's trial, a certain chance of being chosen, for this will be his last season in Hong Kong.

Wodehouse Back Again

Incidentally a large number of candidates for the Interport were at the nets yesterday. R. L. D. Wodehouse, who played for Hong Kong some 16 years ago, and who has just returned to the Colony, showed that he can still send down a good length ball, and, though I do not think he will secure Interport selection, he should be an acquisition to the Club in the League.

Alec Pearce, Lieut. Garthwaite, Capt. Perse, A. H. Madar and W. H. Colledge all appeared to be seeing the ball very well, while the bowlers Garthwaite, Minu, Pearce and Pereira showed good form.

Three of the Selection Committee were present behind the nets.

and had a five and a six amongst his counts. Neil Drummond played up to his best form and Thompson found him a rare handful at No. 3. The two Bobs, Wallace and Duncan, were all square at the 18th, but the elder one won by the three which he got on the last head.

But it was a different story on the other rink, where Adam Holland led Chalmers all the way to run out by 11 shots. McFarlane was in good form for the visitors, but Chalmers himself and Pollock were the two bright stars in the rink.

Only Sensation

The big sensation of the day occurred in the Second Division, when Craigengower put it across Recreio juniors. Not much in it, I admit, but quite an unexpected result. Ward was really the hero, as he beat the leading Portuguese skip by five shots to make the win possible. Basto, with three threes

ATHLETIC LOSE MAJORITY OF THEIR TEAM

The goalkeeper will either be Wong Cheung, who played for St. Joseph's two seasons ago, or Chan Shek-pui, former Athletic custodian, while the backs will be Ho Chor-yin and Mak Shui-hon, both the Athletic's former full-backs. Mak is still with the Olympic tourists and has not yet decided to change clubs, although it is reported that he is almost certain to do so.

Captain Moves Over

Lai Kwok-chiu, who captained the Athletic last season and the season before, will be at right-half, while Ng Tak-wung, who played for St. Joseph's under the name of Lewis Woo, will fill the centre-half berth. Lee Wai-koon, a former Athletic star, will support him on his left flank.

The entire attack is from the Athletic, Tang Kwong-sum being on the right-wing, supported by Wong Wing-hong, while Au Ping-ming will lead the attack, and Yeung Kan-po and Cheung Moon-wing will bring up the left.

From the above team it will be seen that the Kowloon Chinese will be a formidable force, but it will be most interesting to see with which Club they share a ground, as they have not yet secured one.

EASY WIN FOR LAWRENCE IN 220 IS PREDICTED

There is no doubt that both the latter are nowhere near the same class as Lawrence, and as a result the Colony champion will have to set his own pace, swimming against the clock.

Boys' Championship

Another Open event is the 100 Yards free style championship for Boys, which will be a very close affair, although Chun Kam-cheung is favourite by a small margin.

The Long Plunge Championship will probably be won by either L/Opl. G. London or Sergt. W. Stafford, of the East Lancashire Regiment, while E. de Souza will also be a serious contender.

Another event of interest will be the 100 Yard free-style Junior Championship of the V.R.C., in which Lieut. J. M. Calvert, R.E., who has captured the two other Junior titles, is favoured.

The following is the Championship programme:

In the last heads, made a good effort to save the game, but it wasn't quite enough and they went down by a couple.

The Electricians did themselves a good turn by beating the Yachtsmen at North Point, and they may now miss the wooden-spoon, on the handle of which both their victims and the Civil Service juniors have their hands at present.

The Football Club "A" did not meet with much opposition from the K.C.C., although Hirst did well once again to tie with Jack Rodger. Robertson was ahead of Carr all the way and got a neat sixer towards the end to win by 14 shots.

LONDON PRO. SOCCER CLUBS CHALLENGE

ROOM FOR AT LEAST SIX SENIOR TEAMS

ARSENAL STIMULATE INTEREST

(By J. G. Orange)

London, August 22

NOTHING has been more marked in Association football in recent years than the challenge of the London professional clubs to make London the chief centre of Soccer in the world, not only by the numerical strength of the clubs but by the results they have achieved.

I have said time and again that there is room in London for at least half a dozen First Division clubs, and it seems to me that events are moving swiftly in that direction. We start the season of 1936-37 with four London teams in the First Division, one of them, Charlton Athletic, being a brand new side to the premier division, and with two other clubs, West Ham United and Tottenham Hotspur, who have had places there but are now members of the Second Division.

This uplift of London football really started with the Arsenal's great push, under the late Herbert Chapman, to become the first club in the land. Their great success exhilarated the London public and stimulated their London colleagues, and altogether has had a most healthy influence on the game, particularly from the metropolitan standpoint.

All the London clubs want to emulate the Arsenal. They have followed their lead in having restaurants for their patrons; they have copied their ringed stockings; and Millwall, waking at last to their responsibilities to their loyal public, start the coming season with a shirt that is based on the Arsenal design, with royal blue in place of red.

INTERPORTERS BACK
Exceedingly Bad Luck In First Match
HIGH PRAISE FOR SHANGHAI'S SECOND RINK

The Hong Kong Interport lawn bowls team, who were defeated by the Shanghai Lawn Bowls Association in the recent Interport series by 2 matches to 1, returned to the Colony this morning by the m.s. Chichibu Maru.

Mr. A. Hyde-Lay, captain and skip of the Colony side, refused to comment on the series beyond the statement that they were very unlucky in the first Interport match, which they should have won. Every member of the team was up to scratch, but it just happened that luck favoured the other side in that match.

Shanghai's second Interport rink was one of the finest that Mr. Hyde-Lay had ever played against, and he doubted whether any rink in the Colony, including the four best men in Hong Kong, would have avoided defeat at the North-erners' hands.

ARGONAUTAS TO HAVE RESERVE HOCKEY TEAM

These two should make a formidable pair of backs.

Good Intermediate Line
L. Oliveria, of the University, will be playing at right-half, with N. Beltrao in the pivotal position. The other wing-half position will probably be filled by Tony Alves.

The forwards will be chosen from A. S. Xavier, A. Angelo, F. Nolasco, B. Gosano and A. M. Xavier, all of whom played last season. H. Ozorio, of the University will also be available so that a strong attacking line should be seen.

The Argonautas will miss the services of their brilliant right-half, A. A. Silva, who is now in Liverpool continuing his studies.

Reserve Team
In order to keep the first team supplied with reserves the Argonautas are starting a second reserve team, for which friendly games will be arranged during the season.

The latter team will consist for the most part of youngsters with one or two of the more experienced players assisting them.

R. Maxwell will be in goal, and from the few games he played last season, he shows great promise. R. Xavier and A. Pinna will be the two backs, while the half-back line will include M. Gaan, a hard-hitter, and R. Marques. The centre-half position will be hard to fill, but it is confidently expected that some good youngster will be found for the position.

L. Gosano, A. Ozorio, P. Xavier, who formerly played in the first team, Garcia and A. Xavier are among those who will be seen in the forward line.

Lieut. J. M. Calvert, R.E., above, who has so far won the V.R.C. 440 and 220 Yards Junior swimming titles, stands a very good chance of bringing off the "hat-trick" this evening in the 100 Yards free-style.

PRIDE OF TSINGTAO WILL NEED TO BE WATCHED

Monoplane Also Shows Good Form

WILD LIFE TAKEN OVER BY DUNBAR STABLE

(By "RAPIER")

Racing in Macao was resumed last Sunday after the summer interval, and it was featured by exceptionally hot but glorious weather, and attracted quite a gratifying attendance. The first race revealed that Dr. Reid's Pride of Tsingtao, which won in effortless manner, will have to be seriously reckoned with at future meetings.

A small but fast pony, Shanghai Four proved the best of the new subscription griffins of the Macao Race Club, as it came out in two events and won both of them. The biggest upset, however, was provided in the fifth race, the Fat Shan Handicap, when Monoplane, ably ridden by Mr. S. C. Liang, romped home a length ahead of Bistre, which was made favourite. Soldier of China (Mr. S. Y. Liang) was quietly expected to win this race, but I understand from a reliable source that, when rounding the bend, this pony met with interference, and was consequently unable to get through.

In the last race, confined to ladies over half a mile, Mrs. J. Old did very well to bring in Gunsmith, but it must be admitted that Mrs. Stokes was extremely unfortunate when she was unseated by Flamingo, which was leading the field.

Local Meeting
Arrangements for the Seventh Extra Race Meeting of the Hong Kong Jockey Club, to be held on Saturday, September 26, are well advanced.

The string of ponies belonging to the Hem stable have returned from their summer vacation at Fanning.

Liberty Bay and Diana Bay have been seen on the track in the morning gallops, and they appear very fit.

I understand that Wild Life, recently owned by Mr. Li Tse Fong, has now been taken over by the Dunbar Stable and its future progress will therefore be keenly watched. It will be recalled that Wild Life has not taken active part in racing for the past few years, but, under the experienced guidance of the people connected with the Dunbar stable, I anticipate a good season for this fine looking animal.

NEWCOMERS FROM CANTON NAVY

SEASON WILL BE FAR FROM DULL

CHENG SHUI-HONG TO PLAY AGAIN

(By "Referee")

THE prospects for the season are very bright, but we realise that we are only making our debut in Senior Football this season, and although some of our players have had previous experience in this standard of soccer, we are only hoping to give the team the experience that will carry them to greater things next season," said M. Sabhan, Hon. Secretary of the Eastern Football Club, in an interview regarding the prospects of his club.

Sabhan added that the team will include many youngsters who show promise of developing into really good players, though the nucleus of the side will be comprised of several seasoned warriors, including a few men from the Canton Navy and, it is hoped, a former Shanghai Interporter. Sabhan added in regard to the Canton Navy players that these men were residents of Hong Kong, and as such were entitled to play in the League.

Of the younger blood, Cheng Ping-to, who plays on the right-wing, is a very fast man and has excellent ball control. He only needs match experience, and by the end of the season should be a really good First Division player. Another promising player is Sung Ning-sing, who has played for a couple of seasons for the Eastern team, though he has had no experience in First Division football. He is steadily improving with each game, and if he sticks to soccer he should make a name for himself after a couple of seasons in senior football.

Tsang Tsun-wan plays at right-half and, though very young, gives promise of better things, in that he plays football with his head and as a result is one of their most constructive players. He is a stickler with a powerful kick in each foot.

Young Indian Recruits

Sabhan also stated that a few members of the Young Indians' team may turn out for Eastern, but they have not yet signed the necessary forms. They include O. el Arculli, left-back, A. M. Omar, inside-right, A. Azim inside-left, and S. Hamet, another forward, who can also play in the intermediate line.

The strength of the team will centre round M. Sabhan, Cheng Shui-hong, Chan Yiu-tin and Cheung Kok-choi. Sabhan has years of experience behind him and, although he has confined his activities during the past two seasons to Second Division football, he has played in first class soccer, having represented St. Joseph's in the Senior Division, while he also toured Manila with their team.

Cheng To Play

Cheng Shui-hong is a former Interporter who received his Interport recognition in 1932, and who will probably fill the right-wing position, and Chan Yiu-tin played for South China previously. He is now with the Canton Navy, but hopes to turn out regularly for Eastern this season. Cheung Kok-choi, another Canton Navy man, is described as a very reliable half-back.

It will be seen, therefore, that Eastern have reason to hope that their first season in premier football will not be such a dull one, and they should give quite a good account of themselves. Their colours will be red shirts with yellow sleeves and white shorts.

Four Pitchers
The visitors used four pitchers and all experienced no difficulty against the local players. Navoro created havoc among the local ranks with his well varied deliveries.

The Filipinos scored seven runs in the first innings and eased up in the next two, when they scored three, but were "blanked" in the third. In the fourth innings they went for the pitching, and scored 10 runs, which included four homers.

Jones, of the Mindanao, pitched for the local team for four innings, when he was relieved by Milani. The fielders, Leonard, Barros and Muir, had a busy afternoon, however, for the Filipinos hit most of the balls to the outfield, with the result that the infield, with the exception of Horton, at shortstop, did not have much to do.

Good Catching
Leonard brought off two good catches, but the other two fielders were very bad in their positioning and misjudged the ball on several occasions.

In all, six home runs were scored during the game, and these were good clean hits. Ramon, Ramos, E. Saberon, Codinera, and M. Saberon scored for the Filipinos, while Muir registered Hong Kong's only circuit-clout.

not won a race at Race Meetings of this Club. Jockey Allowance. Entrance $5. Half a Mile.

The Moscow Trial

Zinovieff and Kamenef, both veteran revolutionaries, and the former a member of Lenin's "old guard," pleaded guilty to a charge of treason, the penalty for which is death, at the recent Moscow trial. Revolution proverbially destroys its own authors, but in this case the process has been unusually prolonged. It is now 10 years since Stalin broke with the two men who had been his closest colleagues after Lenin's death and deprived them of their offices. Last year their final disappearance from the political scene seemed to be signalled by the sentences of imprisonment passed upon them for complicity in the assassination of Kiroff. Last month, however, they were brought from prison to a court which, contrary to the usual practice in political trials in Soviet Russia, was sitting in public, to be indicted on a further charge. They were accused of conspiracy, not only with the exiled Trotsky, whom the authorities in Moscow still attack with special animus, but with agents of the German secret police. Evidence in support of this allegation was given by one of the 14 men in the dock with them. Its publication far and wide throughout Russia will not improve the relations, already somewhat strained, between Moscow and Berlin.

In the last resort the offence of which the accused men are guilty is that of remaining the uncompromising revolutionaries that they were in 1917. The doctrine of what is called "continuous revolution" emanates from Trotsky and rests on the argument that a Socialist State cannot survive if it stands alone in a hostile world. It must therefore never cease to foment revolution in all capitalist countries. Stalin's position is that the Government now in power in Russia is established beyond fear of challenge and can therefore co-operate with other Governments, whatever their colour, so far as its interests demand. This is the reasoning which has brought Russia into the League of Nations. To a revolutionary of the old school it must needs appear a betrayal. But the old school is no longer in authority in Russia. The leaders who lived so long in exile that they felt themselves to be political Ishmaels, with their hands against every man, have had no successors. Stalin himself is a typical figure of the new order—a man too young to have spent his best years abroad, and concerned now to safeguard the fruits of the revolution where it has succeeded, not to stir up its dying embers where it has failed. In pursuing this policy he claims, not without reason, to be Lenin's heir. As such he cannot brook challenge, much less contradiction, from one who for 25 years was Lenin's intimate.

Chemists & Alchemists

What would the 19th century scientist have thought of a proposal to found a society for the study of alchemy? Carried away by the success of his own method of observation and experiment, he would almost certainly have condemned enquiry into mediaeval superstition as a demoralising waste of time. To-day our training in evolutionary principles has made us interested in origins. Alchemy was the parent of chemistry, as astrology of astronomy. Why

LABOUR POLICY IN BRITAIN PARTY EXECUTIVE MEETING MEMORANDUM ON EVENTS IN EUROPE

London, To-day.

The national executive of the Labour Party is meeting in London to-day to consider the international situation, when rearmament is likely to be among the questions to be discussed, in addition to the Spanish question, with a view to the drafting of a statement of policy and a resolution for the annual conference at Edinburgh on October 5.

It is envisaged in some quarters that there may be a reversal of policy as regards the Government's rearmament programme, but this is still a matter for discussion and decision, as some differences of opinion among the Labourites is believed to exist. — Reuter.

The Picture That Painted Itself

In the Ambrose Museum at Milan, Italy, there is a painting so strange that it is considered the most valuable of all exhibits in the Museum. It is a picture painted by nature, which no human hand has ever touched. The landscape includes valleys, castles, bridge and trees which have been etched by nature in the course of many centuries on the flat surfaces of a rock.

Lady: "Well, if you're quite sure they're off the same pig, I'll take three of them."

Bored
The club bore was relating one of his long-winded stories that everybody knew by heart.

He was describing what happened to him when he went on a trip to the Grand Canyon in America during a world tour.

"The soft curtain of night was just falling," he stated. "There I stood, drinking in the scene, with the giant abyss yawning before me."

One of his listeners interrupted at this point:

"I say, old chap," he asked, "was that abyss yawning before you got there?"

Unafraid
"So you want to marry my daughter," said Mr. Brown to the anxious youth. "Have you seen her mother?"

"Yes, but daughters don't always grow to look like mothers," came the reassuring reply.

should the prosperous and respectable sons disown their unsuccessful and misguided but well-meaning fathers?

Mediaeval thought differed from our own in that it was always seeking for some master formula—the key that would unlock every door—whereas we start with the formula, now called a hypothesis or theory, set ourselves to test its validity and discard it as soon as the facts disprove it. But there is a link between the two methods. The mediaeval men held that the formula could not operate unless the conditions were entirely favourable to its efficacy, and in their study of conditions they ascertained truths which they still hold. The modern physicist, for example, recognises an affinity between mercury and gold. His work is even leading him to accept the transmutation of metals—of radium, for instance, into lead.

Here There and Everywhere

PRODUCER'S NIGHTMARE
Mr. Guthrie McClintic, who will produce Mr. Gielgud's "Hamlet" in New York recently made his London debut as a producer with "The Ante-Room."

He was not nervous, as he has already successfully overcome the worst situation that could confront any producer—arriving at a theatre with his company three hours late for a performance.

This was at Seattle, where his wife, Miss Katharine Cornell, was due to appear in "The Barretts of Wimpole Street." Widespread floods delayed the train in which the company was travelling. Seattle was not reached until eleven o'clock at night.

New York stars are seldom seen in that part of America. To his amazement, Mr. McClintic found when he reached the theatre that the audience was still patiently waiting.

To keep them interested, he had the scenery set up in full view of the spectators. This gave the actors time to dress, and the performance began at midnight, ending at three the next morning.

APPEAL COURT RECORD

Only Mr. R. E. Ross, who is soon to retire from his post of chief clerk to the Court of Criminal Appeal, can claim to have attended all that tribunal's sittings since its first on May 15, 1908.

It caused surprise at the time that so important a new body, over which controversy had raged for many months, was opened without the least ceremony.

Of the three judges who sat none survive to-day. They were Lord Alverstone, Mr. Justice Channell, and Mr. Justice A. T. Lawrence, who as Lord Trevellyn died recently.

The first application made was for leave to appeal by a prisoner under sentence for doing grievous bodily harm to another.

This failed, but before the court rose another prisoner left the precincts a free man, his conviction for uttering counterfeit coin being held unjustified. This decision went far to abate criticism of the new tribunal as unnecessary.

A NIGHT ON MOUNT EVEREST

SPECIAL SLEEPING KIT FOR EXPEDITION

INGENIOUS IDEAS CARRIED OUT BY YOUNG DESIGNER

(By Michael Lorant)

MR. ROBERT BURNS, a young Manchester designer of novel camping equipment, had the responsible task of keeping warm the members of the world's greatest climbing enterprise, the Mount Everest Expedition for 1936.

He met Mr. Frank S. Smythe, famous member of the expedition, years ago and explained to him an idea he had for solving one of the most difficult problems of the whole expedition, namely, how best to combat the excessive cold at the top of the Himalayas.

He designed all the special equipment, top tents and sleeping-bags for the Mount Everest Expedition of 1933. His devices proved so successful that they were again adopted in an even more improved form for the recent daring adventure of the British explorers.

Specially Constructed

There are tents, sleep-bags and specially constructed expedition down garments made of fine soft-cambrie.

The sleeping-bags were evolved from an entirely new idea on the so-called cubi-cell principle. One must know that during the final stages of the ascent, on account of the extreme cold, the clothing carried has to be capable of providing much more warmth, and yet at the same time must be considerably reduced in weight.

The tents were of the simplest construction and even a novice could erect them. All one has to do is to push four poles into the ground and tie them down. The roof sheet is attached to the roof and there is no need for spacers, as they automatically space themselves.

Gay Affairs

The climbers took fourteen tents, and the top tents, made of "Grenfell" cloth, were gay affairs in four colours, blue, green, red and cream. Originally there was a panel in yellow, but this was changed to cream as yellow is a sacred colour in Tibet.

One must realise that these tents are exposed to conditions

CREW'S NARROW ESCAPE

HONG KONG BOWLERS LOSE ON LAST END

H. A. ALVES IN GOOD FORM

BUT S.L.B.C. LUCKY TO HAVE WON

Shanghai, September 12. The Shanghai Lawn Bowls Club beat Hong Kong yesterday afternoon, on their own green, by 25 shots to 23, being very lucky to have escaped defeat, as they collapsed in the last few ends of the match.

The Lawn Bowls Club four were:—W. A. Turnbull (skip), W. J. Monk (No. 3), E. R. Harmer (No. 2), A. Harvey (lead), and Hong Kong were represented by:—H. A. Alves (skip), A. Hyde-Lay (No. 3), F. V. V. Ribeiro (No. 2), and P. E. Knight (lead).

The green was very fast and the gusty cross wind blowing made bowling difficult for both sides. The Hong Kong skip, H. A. Alves, was the outstanding player and easily the best man on the green, making a great effort against long odds.

For the winners, Harmer and Monk were the best of a poor lot. The former started not too well but settled down and played good bowls, bringing off some fine shots but, like the others, he collapsed in the last few ends.

Monk was fairly steady all through, but Harvey was off form, except for a few ends in the middle of the game. Turnbull, as skip, failed badly; he has never seen him play worse; he was short all the time, when he had everything to gain by being up; it was his off-day.

For the losers, H. A. Alves, Hong Kong's No. 3, was the outstanding player on the green. Time after time when he came up to play the club were laying, and it was only owing to his fine play that Hong Kong made any stand at all. He, however, received very little support from his men.

His lead, Knight, with the exception of the first few ends, bowled badly and was hardly ever in the count and Ribeiro at No. 2 was very little better.—N.C.D.N.

PROPOSED TAX ON COSMETICS

Hungary Seeks New Forms Of Revenue

The Hungarian Government is setting a new example to needy Chancellors of the Exchequer who may be looking for untouched sources of revenue.

It proposes to levy a 15 per cent. tax on all cosmetic products, such as face powders, rouge, perfumes, beauty preparations, and such-like feminine accessories.

The revenue from the tax would go to improving the lot of poor peasants.

It is estimated that $40,000 is spent on cosmetics in Hungary every year.

CONDITIONS IN SOVIET

From the technical standpoint, General Rickoff considers that Soviet Russia has already reached the maximum development on land and in the air, and the great aim is now to bring the navy to the same standard. The docks at Vladivostok and Komsomolsk are working day and night, 25 new submarines having just recently been launched.—Trans-Ocean Service.

ALLEGED OFFER OF BRIBE

Indian Constable Remanded

Harchand Singh, a Police constable, who is charged with offering a bribe of $220 to Sergeant C. H. Gough, again appeared on remand before Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy, when the question of bail was considered.

Sub-Inspector Baker said that he had been instructed to allow bail of $1,000, as the case was more serious than an ordinary case of bribery since two police officers were concerned.

Mr. G. S. Hugh-Jones, for the defendant, asked for a reduction of bail, stating that the defendant was only earning a small salary, but His Worship said in spite of that the defendant was able to offer a large bribe and might have other resources.

Bail was finally fixed at $750 and defendant was formally remanded for a week.

WRIT SERVED ON STEAMER

Captain And Crew Leave

DETAINED AT PLYMOUTH

Plymouth.—A writ of seizure has been attached to the Newcastle steamer La Santa Maria, 958 tons, which in the last few months has carried cargoes of ammunition to Abyssinia and been arrested in Spain and come under gunfire from Spanish troops.

The steamer arrived here last month from Cadiz, where she had been detained for a month, and was to have sailed the following day for Antwerp. She remained moored in the docks, however, with only two German aviators on board. They joined her last April to go to Abyssinia, and have been unable to land because their passports were confiscated by the Spanish authorities.

The crew were paid off and the master, Capt. P. P. Allan, of South Shields, has terminated his employment with the company. The first mate has been appointed captain and has left for Cardiff to obtain a new crew.

The writ has been issued on the authority of Dora Amelia Shaw, a shareholder of the owning company, Charles Vairon and Co. Ltd.

Later a man accompanied two plainclothes officers to the police station.

EIGHT FILMS TO COST £750,000

British Bid For World Markets

DENHAM STUDIOS BUSY

Eight pictures, which will have cost, in the aggregate, about £750,000 to make, are now in production at the Denham studios, in Buckinghamshire. Three more productions will begin shortly.

These figures, in themselves a record for any studios in Great Britain, are a remarkable testimony to the progress which British films have made, since every one of the eight pictures is for international release.

Five of the pictures are being made by London Films. They are: "Rembrandt," an Alexander Korda production, with Charles Laughton in the title-role; "Fire Over England," produced by Erich Pommer, directed by William K. Howard; "Elephant Boy," Robert Flaherty's production of the Kipling story;

"Dark Journey," produced by Victor Saville, with Vivien Leigh and Conrad Veidt; and "Triangle," directed by Walter Reisch, starring Miriam Hopkins.

Other films now being made are "Moonlight Sonata," by Pall Mall Productions, with Marie Tempest and Paderewski, directed by F. R. Mendes; "Land Without Music" (Capitol Films), featuring Richard Tauber and Diana Napier; and "Wings of the Morning," the first Technicolor film to be made in England, in which "Annabella" and Henry Fonda are the stars.

This last is a New World production, the British company controlled by Fox-Twentieth Century. "I, Claudius," an adaptation of Robert Graves's novel, is to be produced shortly by Alexander Korda. Another film, scheduled for early production is "Troopship"—a story founded on a newspaper report of the arrival of a troopship at a British port for a stay of only four hours.

The Dietrich film, "Knights Without Armour," was due to start production when Miss Dietrich returned from Paris at the middle of last month.

THE DIRECTOR'S MOUSTACHE

Comments Followed By Blows

An offer of a £1,000 bet over a company director's moustache was mentioned at Marylebone Police-court last month.

Andrey Alexander Green, aged 29, the company director, of Inglewood, West Heath-avenue, Golders Green, and two motor salesmen, Henry Makein, aged 26, of Antrim-mansions, Hampstead, and William Makein, aged 38, of Stanley-gardens, Hampstead, were each fined 40s. for insulting words and behaviour whereby a breach of the peace was caused.

A further charge of damaging a £20 plate-glass window at the shop of J. Leon and Co., Finchley-road, Swiss Cottage, was withdrawn.

Looked Unreal

Two constables said they found the three men fighting in Finchley-road at 2.40 a.m. In the struggle Green pushed Henry Makein through the plate-glass window.

Green, giving evidence, said that while he was at a coffee stall at Swiss Cottage two girls arrived in a Bentley car. They ordered something and he (Green) was in conversation with them when the Makeins came up.

Henry, after remarking to Green, "I do not like the look of your moustache," said to one of the girls, "Do you like it? Does it look real to you?"

The girl turned away, and Henry then said to witness: "I bet £1,000 that it is not real and I can pull it off."

Witness told him to put his money down. Blows followed.

FRANCE DESIRES PEACE

IMPORTANCE OF SECURITY. Paris: In an important speech, which was broadcast yesterday evening and later retransmitted in English, German and Italian, the Premier, M. Leon Blum, defended democratic principles, summing up his argument in the words: "Political liberty, equal rights for all citizens, fraternity between all men."

Turning to the question of foreign politics, M. Blum said that the French conception of peace was built up on the basis of self-determination for all nations, equality among the nations, and fraternity in the sense of a progressive banishment of war.

France would accordingly use her influence at the forthcoming session of the League Council for material disarmament within the framework of the League of Nations, and she would renew her appeal against the armament race and for co-operation between all the nations.

The Premier concluded by stressing the importance of security for France, who would maintain her independence and freedom of decision and would not submit to any kind of pressure, direct or indirect.

LEAGUE POLICY

The French Foreign Minister, M. Delbos, departed last evening for Geneva, accompanied by Minister of Economics and Commerce, M. Bastid, to be present at the forthcoming session of the League of Nations Council.

The French attitude will probably not be decided upon until M. Delbos has had a chance to confer with the representatives of the Little Entente as well as the delegations from England and Soviet Russia, with which lengthy conferences are planned.

M. Delbos, it is understood, will make suggestions for a limitation of the armaments race, and that the proposals for League reform be studied. It is also stated that M. Delbos will confer with the Portuguese delegation in an attempt to prevail upon Portugal to send delegations to the London Conference on the application of the agreement in regard to non-intervention, in Spain.—Trans-Ocean Service.

Another gift took the form of a batsman's wicket on the cricket field, made in silver, and set on a blackwood stand. The wicket was complete with balls, a bat resting against it, a ball and crease. The bidding:

North East South West
1H. Pass 1S. Pass
1NT Pass 2S. Pass
2NT Pass 4S. (final bid)

Undoubtedly, North should have passed to the two spade bid, but he evidently was a believer in miracles.

West opened the low diamond, dummy ducked, and East's king won, after which the ten of diamonds was returned. Dummy's ace won and three rounds of trumps followed. West, on lead with the queen, properly decided that his one chance was to underlead his club-ace, find his partner with the queen, and declarer with the jack, and have declarer guess wrong. Since declarer was so fortunate as to be ten high in the suit, he was forced to put up the club king. When it held, he returned to his hand with a diamond and finessed his singleton heart up to the ace-queen. The queen winning, the ace was cashed for a club discard, and a club trick finally, and graciously, conceded for the poor defenders' third trick.

CHINESE MERCHANT
PASSES

Mr. Foo Yick Pang

WELL-KNOWN CONTRACTOR
AND LAND-OWNER

The death occurred early yesterday morning of Mr. Foo Sik who was also known as Foo Yick-pang, at the age of 77. One of Hong Kong's wealthy building contractors and land-owners, Mr. Foo Sik was proprietor of the contracting firm, Yuen Lee.

A generous contributor to charity, the late Mr. Foo Sik was formerly on the Committees of the Tung Wah Hospital, the Po Leung Knk and Chinese Chamber of Commerce. Among his contributions to education was a donation of $50,000 to the recently opened Aberdeen Industrial School.

The late Mr. Foo Sik is survived by two sons, Mr. Foo Kam-shing and Mr. Foo Kam-yuen, also a daughter, a number of grandchildren, and many nephews, including Mr. Foo Ping-shung, LL.D., now Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee of the Nanking Legislative Yuan. Mr. Foo Ping-kan, and Mr. Foo Ping-yee, all well-known Hong Kong residents.

Mr. Foo Ping-shung will arrive this morning from Nanking by the President McKinley. He left Nanking last week on receipt of news that his uncle was seriously ill. Mr. Foo Ping-shung, it may be recalled, was the first graduate of Hong Kong University to secure the degree of Doctor of Law.

Amusements

Cinema Notes From
The Theatres

"YOU MAY BE NEXT"—
ALHAMBRA THEATRE

Based on a story by Henry Wales and Ferdinand Reyher, "You May Be Next" details the strangely fascinating plot engineered by Douglass Dumbrille as the super-raceteer, to extort a fortune from the radio broadcasting companies by threatening to neutralise their programmes with a secret and mysterious radio wave.

Ann Sothern is featured in "You May Be Next" with Lloyd Nolan, appearing as a "blues" singer in Dumbrille's cafe. Nolan resigns as radio engineer from the country's largest radio system when his attempts to secure a programme for Miss Sothern fail. Dumbrille strikes at the opportunity to find a foil for his plot by kidnapping Nolan and holding him prisoner in his roadhouse.

Dumbrille "jams" the stations and informs the owners that he will continue disrupting their vital service until he is paid off. Nolan is immediately suspected, having recently resigned and suddenly disappeared. Thousands of dollars are offered for his apprehension. Dumbrille plans to collect his extortion monies, murder Nolan, pin the blame on him and then collect the reward for his capture. The fantastic plot goes away through the efforts of Miss Sothern and John Arledge, Nolan's friend and aide.

Directed with skill by Albert Rogell, "You May Be Next" emerges as a thrilling entertainment. Miss Sothern is her usual competent self, embellishing the film's excitement with many light moments of melody and comedy. Nolan is excellent, as the falsely accused radio engineer, as are Douglass Dumbrille, John Arledge, Berton Churchill and Robert Middleton in supporting roles.

"TILL WE MEET AGAIN"—
QUEEN'S THEATRE

The heartaches of lovers, torn apart by their devotion to their respective countries, are dramatically brought to the screen in this picture, which shows two happy lovers, stars of the theatre in London, Herbert Marshall and his Viennese sweetheart, Gertrude Michael, whose wedding plans are wrecked by the declaration of war. Marshall, as a loyal Englishman, joins his colours and Miss Michael, who, unknown to her sweetheart, is a member of the German Secret Service, places herself under the orders of her commanding officer.

Marshall is assigned to the British Intelligence Service, and enters Germany, disguised as a German soldier. Miss Michael is also stationed in Germany, and when, accidentally, she meets her lover, realises that her love for him is so great that she cannot betray him.

Unconsciously, however, she gives him away to the German authorities, as an English spy. Then she forgets her loyalty to her country, and risks death before a firing squad to save him. The way in which the sweethearts outwit the German agents and make their successful escape across the border into a happier world of peace and love furnishes the unforgettable thrilling climax. Lionel Atwill, Rod LaRocque and Frank Reicher head the excellent supporting cast.

"SAN FRANCISCO"—KING'S AND ALHAMBRA THEATRE

"San Francisco" promises to be one of the most talked-about pictures in many, many months. First, it teams three of the most popular screen stars for the first time—Clark Gable, Jeanette

RADIO: To-day's Programme

HE DIDN'T SEE HIS OLD HOME
Emigrant's Death While On Homeward Voyage

Fifty years ago 15-year-old Edgar Warwick, of Birmingham, emigrated to New Zealand. He prospered and then, at the age of 65, he said that he would like to see his home town before he died. So he joined the P. and O. liner Barrabool in Australia, and on the voyage told fellow-passengers how he hoped to see friends of his boyhood days. Then he was taken ill suddenly; and when the Barrabool arrived at Plymouth last month they said that he had died and had been buried at sea.

Macdonald and Spencer Tracy. It is a picture brimming with romance, love, comedy, beautiful music and excitement.

The picture takes us into the seething, mad excitement of the Barbary Coast when it was a by-word around the world. It takes us into aristocratic Nob Hill, into the old Tivoli opera house, the historic Palace Hotel and other landmarks of the old San Francisco and to the earthquake that leveled a beautiful city to the ground 30 years ago, in a series of the most realistic disaster scenes ever filmed.

Clark Gable offers one of his greatest characterisations as Blackie Norton, owner of the most popular resort on the Coast. Jeanette MacDonald is superb as the country girl who starts her singing career on the Barbary Coast and rises to great operatic heights, only to return to the Coast because of the man she loves. Spencer Tracy scores in an unusual role as a kindly priest who chooses the wicked street for his evangelistic work. In the excellent supporting cast are Jack Holt, Jessie Ralph, Ted Healy, Shirley Ross, Margaret Irving, Harold Huber and Al Shean.

"ROAD GANG"—MAJESTIC THEATRE

This picture of raw, stark realism, said to have the terrors prisoners are subjected to in a penal institution run by grafting politicians, is set in the sombre background of a farm conducted by a county for convicts, and a mine where incorrigible prisoners are shipped. In the former place the brutality is almost medieval, but at the latter conditions are so terrible that inmates are said either to go insane or die.

There is a wealth of dynamic drama and fast action, with thrill upon thrill, including a convict's strike and battle, with police guards, who use gas bombs and Tommy guns, in the bowels of the earth; a running gun-fight between police cars and a car in which a convict is fleeing for his life; and the blasting of a mine tunnel with dynamite.

The picture has an unusually large and talented cast, which is headed by Donald Woods, Kay Linsler, Carlyle Moore, Jr., Henry O'Neill and Joseph King.

"SMALL TOWN GIRL"—
ORIENTAL THEATRE

It has been only a handful of years since Miss Gaynor herself was a Hollywood "extra." She rocketed to overnight fame in "Seventh Heaven," and since has become a beloved favourite wherever motion pictures are shown.

"Small Town Girl" is her first appearance for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. It is one of the company's more important photoplays.

Produced by Hunt Stromberg and directed by William Wellman, the picture boasts a cast that includes, besides Miss Gaynor and Taylor, Binnie Barnes, Lewis Stone, Andy Devine, Frank Craven and James Stewart. The screen play was written by John Lee Mahin and Edith Fitzgerald from Ben Ames Williams' best-selling novel.

The following programme will be broadcast to-day from the Hong Kong Broadcasting Station Z.B.W. on a wavelength of 355 metres. (845 K.C.'s).

Aids To Efficiency.

Efficiency is the key note of success. Inefficient people go to the wall. One of the first essentials to efficiency is physical and mental well-being. The constipated, dull, dismal man or woman gets shelled, whilst the wise ones who avoid stagnation of any kind go ahead.

Among the latter people are users of Pinkettes, the little laxative pills which, taken when needed, keep the intestinal tract clean, the liver active, the skin clear, the breath sweet. There is nothing better than Pinkettes for quickly dispelling constipation, liverishness, sick headaches, gloom. They also speedily relieve flatulency. In short, Pinkettes, obtainable from chemists everywhere, ensure your efficiency by keeping you well.

COMING LOCARNO CONFERENCE

Note Prepared By British Govt.

London, To-day.

To-day the Foreign Secretary, Mr. Anthony Eden, who returned to the Foreign Office yesterday for the first time since his attack of chicken-pox and who leaves on Sunday for Geneva, will hand to the Ambassadors in London of France, Germany, Italy and Belgium a note containing proposals in connection with the present stage of the diplomatic preparations for the projected five-Power conference.

The importance of these preliminary diplomatic exchanges has been recognised by all the parties, and Mr. Eden has been anxious to complete the work on the present note before leaving for Geneva, in order that no time should be lost which might occasion delay in the fixing of the meeting itself.

The British part during the preparatory phase arises naturally from the fact that the meeting of the three Powers which issued the communiqué of July 23 was held in London. — British Wireless Service.

DR. STOYADENOVITCH'S WORK EULOGISED

Ankara, to-day.—Since the Yugoslavian Premier, Dr. M. Stoyadenovitch, after his short stay in Bucharest, succeeded in solving many problems between the two countries that had defied treatment for many years, the Turkish press expresses the hope that when he pays an official visit to Ankara at the end of October, the same happy result will follow.

The Premier will arrive at the time of the anniversary of the foundation of the Turkish Republic. The Greek Premier, General Metaxas, has accepted an invitation to visit Ankara at the same time. — Trans-Ocean Service.

LONDON NAVAL TREATY

Proposed Adhesion By Northern Countries

GERMAN REPLY AWAITED
BY BRITAIN

London, To-day.

The third meeting of the Scandinavian countries and the United Kingdom Government in connection with the London Naval Treaty was held at the Foreign Office yesterday. The purpose of these meetings has been to enable experts from the four countries concerned to make contact with representatives of the United Kingdom in order to elucidate points arising out of London Naval Treaty of 1936.

Full explanations on all points have now been given, and the naval experts will be able to return to their respective countries with the necessary information to permit their Governments to decide on their attitude to the treaty. Good progress has been made and it is expected that further discussions will take place in the near future. It is understood that there are still outstanding technical questions to be settled, but it is hoped that these will soon be overcome.

There is every evidence of the utmost readiness on the part of the Scandinavian countries to assist in every way in order to obtain a satisfactory settlement. The British Government is awaiting a reply from Germany in connection with the earlier naval conversations with German representatives, and it is hoped that the discussions between the two countries will be resumed very shortly. — British Wireless Service.

BRITISH SOCIAL SERVICES

Midwifery For All
Mothers

CHILD WELFARE MOVEMENTS

London, To-day.

Sir Kingsley Wood, Minister of Health, in a speech yesterday afternoon, said that he hoped the new midwifery service under the Government's Midwives Act would be in operation throughout the country by July next, and that every mother would then be able to obtain, whatever her circumstances, the services of a qualified midwife. He wanted to see the whole status of the midwifery profession raised to a higher level.

Sir Kingsley Wood claimed that a record of which the British people could be very proud in connection with social reform was their progress in child welfare. But they must go on constantly developing and extending. He hoped in the next session of Parliament to bring forward proposals for filling the gap that at present existed in the medical supervision of a child between the time at which he left school to enter employment and when he commenced health insurance. — British Wireless Service.

PROPOSED NEW 3d. BIT

Larger Coin Being Considered

London, To-day.

The Royal Mint and Treasury are understood to have under consideration the issue of three-penny pieces of larger size, in place of the present very small silver coins. The new coin would be of a size midway between the sixpence and shilling, of a distinctive colour — neither silver nor copper — and with a special edge, in the form perhaps of a wave.

The issue of three-penny pieces of the existing pattern, made by the Mint in 1934, amounted in value to £24,000, of which £20,000 went to the Scottish banks. — British Wireless Service.
